

temples

Temple Name	Deity	Location	Historical Significance	Festivals & Events	Other Details
Sree Irayankot Mahadeva Temple	Lord Shiva	Irayankot, Kattakada	One of the oldest temples in the region, known for its ancient rituals and unique customs.	Shivaratri, Karkidaka Vavubali, and Navaratri.	A popular temple for local devotees, located close to Thoongampara, featuring traditional Kerala-style architecture.
Padiyanoor Devi Temple	Goddess Chamundi (Durga)	Poovachal, near Kattakada	This temple is dedicated to Padiyanooramma, a form of Goddess Chamundi, with great historical importance.	Major festivals include Makam Thozhal, Vishu, Navaratri, and Karthika.	One of the most significant temples in the region, surrounded by scenic beauty, and a hub for local worshippers.
Sree Ayyappa Temple	Lord Ayyappa	Kattakada (Near Changanassery Road)	Dedicated to Lord Ayyappa, the temple plays a key role in promoting spiritual practices and pilgrimage.	Mandala Pooja (November–December), Makaravilakku, Vishu, and Navaratri.	Temple attracts devotees especially during Makaravilakku, the famous festival at Sabarimala, where worshippers undertake pilgrimages.
Sree Bhadrakali Temple	Goddess Bhadrakali	Kattakada, near Kadakkavoor	A prominent goddess worship temple known for rituals, especially those related to powerful invocations of the deity.	Vishu, Navaratri, Kaliamma Pongala, and Makara Sankranti.	Known for its beautiful idol of Bhadrakali, attracting devotees seeking protection and strength.
Sree Vettakkorumakan Temple	Lord Ayyappa / Vettakkorumakan	Vettakkorumakan, near Kattakada	Lord Vettakkorumakan is considered the guardian deity in many temples. The temple is highly respected by villagers.	Vettakkorumakan Pongala, Mandala Pooja, and Makaravilakku.	Located in Vettakkorumakan village, it’s dedicated to Ayyappa and Vettakkorumakan, featuring rituals connected to local beliefs.
Sree Parvathi Temple	Goddess Parvathi	Kattakada	This Sree Parvathi temple is known for its serene location, with a rich history of traditional practices and rites.	Navaratri, Vishu, Maha Shivaratri, and Onam are celebrated with grand rituals.	Located within the lush green surroundings of Kattakada, the temple is dedicated to Goddess Parvathi and holds a significant place for locals.
Sree Ganapathy Temple	Lord Ganesha	Kattakada, Nedumangadu Road	A temple dedicated to Lord Ganesha, the remover of obstacles and a source of prosperity and wisdom for devotees.	Ganesh Chaturthi, Vinayaka Chaturthi, and Onam.	Famous for its Ganesha idol, the temple is particularly well known for welcoming students and devotees seeking success.
Sree Maha Vishnu Temple	Lord Vishnu	Kattakada	This temple is dedicated to Lord Vishnu and follows an ancient tradition that connects local people with divine blessings.	Vaikuntha Ekadashi, Onam, Vishu, and Makar Sankranti are celebrated here with great devotion.	Temple architecture follows the Kerala style, attracting locals for divine intervention and seeking blessings for prosperity and well-being.
Sree Shivananda Ashram	Lord Shiva	Kattakada	Founded by Sivananda Maharaj, this ashram is dedicated to meditation and spiritual guidance, promoting peace.	Yoga Retreats, Shivaratri, and Makar Sankranti are key events.	It’s a spiritual center more than just a temple, known for yoga and meditation sessions in a tranquil environment.
Sree Subramanya Swamy Temple	Lord Subramanya	Kattakada, near Vallakadavu	Devotees pray to Lord Subramanya for protection and blessings during key life events, particularly for marriage.	Skanda Sashti, Subramanya Shasti, Vishu, and Navaratri are major celebrations.	Known for its twin festivals of Skanda Sashti and Subramanya Shasti, this temple offers a peaceful location for devotees to pay respects.